1. PREFACE

a. The Tata Pigments Limited (hereinafter referred to as 'The Company') believes in the conduct of the affairs of its constituents in a fair and transparent manner by adopting highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour. Towards this end, the Company has adopted the Tata Code of Conduct ("the Code"), which lays down the principles and standards that should govern the actions of the Company and its employees. Any actual or potential violation of the Code, howsoever insignificant or perceived as such, would be a matter of serious concern for the Company. The role of the employees in pointing out such violations of the Code cannot be undermined. There is a provision under the Code requiring employees to report violations, which states:

We encourage our employees, customers, suppliers and other stakeholders to raise concerns or make disclosures when they become aware of any actual or potential violation of our code, policies or law. We also encourage reporting of any event (actual or potential) of misconduct that is not reflective of our values and principles. Avenues available for raising concerns or queries or reporting cases could include:

- Immediate line manager or the Human Resource department of our Company
- Designated ethics officials of our company
- The 'confidential reporting' third party ethics helpline – 18001032931 Access Code:26801
- Any other reporting channel set out in our Company's whistleblower policy.

The company shall ensure protection to the whistleblower and any attempts to intimidate him/her would be treated as a violation of the "Code"
